

Recent Grant Awards

Our success depends on the generous support of the community. We greatly appreciate the grant awards we have received from private and corporate foundations and acknowledge support from the following donors between August 1, 2012 and November 15, 2012.

The P&G Fund of The Greater Cincinnati Foundation renews its general operating support of Cincinnati Museum Center with a grant of $125,000.

The Andrew Jergens Foundation supports Duke Energy Children's Museum with a grant of $50,000. As an organization dedicated to serving children in our community, we were honored to be one of five recipients selected to celebrate the Foundation's 50th Anniversary.

The Charles F. Dater Foundation supports Duke Energy Children's Museum with a grant of $20,000.

Best Buy Foundation provides support for our Youth Program with a grant of $5,000.

Ohio Casualty Foundation renews support for our Youth Program with a grant of $10,000.

The Jean F. Mulford Fund of the Cambridge Charitable Foundation is again supporting Cincinnati History Museum's "Living History" weekends with a grant of $5,000.

Business Partner Weekend

Museum Center celebrates the support of local companies with free admission for all Business Partner associates.

A special thank you to our Business Partner Weekend sponsor, Paycor. With over 19,000 pre-registered associates, September 28-30, 2012 was a great weekend at Museum Center.

Special programming and membership discounts were available for all those who participated. For more information about supporting Museum Center as a Business Partner, visit cincymuseum.org/support/corporate or call (513) 287-7003.
